LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislature begins its special session on industrial financing tomorrow. House leaders expect a brief uncomplicated and inexpensive stay.

House Efficiency Committee members who met here yesterday to iron out final details expect to be at the capital only three days. Pulaski County's Glenn F. Waller, the committee chairman, said the session could extend through Saturday, but that it was doubtful.

Waller said a proposal by Sen. Jack V. Clark of Texarkana to appropriate three million dollars to buy bonds of the First Arkansas Development Finance Corp. would be passed or defeated before Saturday.

The committee voted to use the old-style roll call vote in the House to save the expense and time of repairing the electric voting machine, which is out of order.

The session will be inexpensive, the committee said, because $20,000 left over from the 1959 regular session will be enough to finance the short stay and no special appropriation will be necessary.

Committee members indicated they would not be enthusiastic about proposals not included in the 11-item agenda prepared last week by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Clark announced Saturday that he would introduce the appropriation bill. If passed, it would be continued on Page Three.

1960 Livestock Show Officers

District Stock Show Names New Officers

The following officers were elected to serve for the year 1960: A. P. Cox of Texarkana, President; Frank Douglas of Hope, First Vice-President and Treasurer; Robert Child of Nashville, Second Vice-President and Talbot Field of Hope, Parliamentarian.

In addition to the above officers the following men were elected to the board: Herman Stavelly of Nashville, Howard County; Jack McMurrough from Stamps, Lafayette County; Jim Cole from Columbia County; Sam Leslie from Little River County; Dr. John W. Harper of El Dorado, Union County; Millard Fisher from Hot Spring County and Dale Rodgers from Mena, Polk County.

Directors re-elected were: Robert Child of Nashville, representing Pike County; N. B. Coleman, Fulton, Hempstead County; A. P. Cox of Texarkana, Miller County; Frank Douglas of Hope, Hempstead County; Joe Elean of Waldo, Columbia County; Judge U. G. Garrett of Hope, Hempstead County; Bill Ross of Arkadelphia, Clark County; Lee Stanley of Mt. Ida, Montgomery County; Ellis Stewart of Prescott, Nevada County; T. B. Thomas of Curtis, Clark County; Glen Wallace of Nashville, Howard County; and Talbot Field of Hope, Hempstead County.

The third week in September was set as the permanent date for the show. In the past it has been set at the discretion of the board on dates varying from the first to the fourth week in September and conflicts have always resulted from neighboring County fairs.

It was brought out at the meeting that the new date would conflict this year with some three or four fairs in the area but county fair officials will be asked to try to work out their dates so as not to conflict in the future. By setting the date for the third week in September the livestock producers will have an opportunity to show their livestock.

Stephens Tax Protest Upheld by High Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme court today upheld a Little Rock investment firm in its protest against a payment of $360,837 in state income taxes.

Stephens, Inc., had filed suit in Pulaski Chancery Court against payment of the money to the state Revenue Department.

The Revenue Department contended Stephens owed the sum in taxes on profits from the sale of Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Co. stock in the 1956-57 fiscal year.

Stephens, formerly the W. R. Stephens Investment Co., paid the tax against its will and then filed the protesting suit.

The firm won in chancery court and the Revenue Department carried the issue to the Supreme Court.

Associate Justice Paul Ward, author of the high court's opinion, pointed out that nearly all of the Ark-La stock involved was purchased and sold outside the state.

He said the profits therefore were not subject to state income taxes.

At another point, the unanimous opinion noted that no state other than Arkansas had collected any income tax on the transaction.

The case stemmed from Stephens' 1954 purchase of the stock from Cities Service Co. Stephens later sold 315,235 shares through a New Jersey bank and a New York brokerage firm.

Hope Jaycees to Climax a Year of Helpful Activities With Awards Banquet Tonight at 7

Climaxing a year of helpful activities in the community the Hope Junior Chamber of Commerce will have a banquet tonight at the Diamond Cafe beginning at 7:00 p. m. The "Boss of the Year" and the "Outstanding Young Man of the Year" will be announced at that time and will be presented appropriate recognition.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will observe the 40th Anniversary of the national organization throughout this week. Its purpose is to develop leadership and to promote civic improvements.

Eugene White, local Jaycee president, reminds us that the Hope Jaycees have kept that purpose in their minds in all their activities which have included buying and painting 13 trash cans and putting them on downtown streets to collect debris which might otherwise be thrown on the streets.

During January of last year the Jaycees played basketball with the Lions Club and used the proceeds from the admission receipts for the March of Dimes. They sponsored the Easter Egg Hunt at Fair Park and the Junior Golf Tournament, sending the winner of the latter, Charles Carver, to the state tournament.

When it came to reality, the Hope Jaycees were always in the forefront to lend assistance. They sponsored the Beauty Pageant and the contests for Miss Hope and Miss Hospitality. They sent 1,000 lbs. of Hope watermelon to Miss Arkansas for contestants in the Miss America contest.

The Jaycees had a concession stand at the Livestock Show, and they helped the Booster Club with football ticket sales. At Christmas time they co-sponsored the Christmas parade with the Retail Merchants. They obtained Santa Claus for four days in our city, and they concluded their year of assistance to people by picking up between 1,500 and 2,000 Christmas trees for safe disposal.

Possible Cut in Taxes But Not This Year

Legion Group Silent About Nat'l Chief

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The executive committee of the Arkansas American Legion has decided to withdraw a speaking invitation to national Legion commander Martin McKenney of New York.

Arkansas commander Hayes Stephens had said he would ask the committee to withdraw the invitation because McKenney dismissed the 40 & 8 from the Legion body after the 40 & 8 refused to admit Negro members.

Stephens was supported in his stand by other high-ranking Arkansas Legion officials. The Arkansas Legion has questioned the legality of McKenney's actions in the 40 & 8 controversy and so far has done nothing to separate the national relationship between the state Legion and the state 40 & 8.

McKenney was invited to speak at the state Legion convention, which will be held here Aug. 13-15.

The M. M. Everts Post of Little Rock was named convention host. Two other Little Rock posts and a Hot Springs post had asked for the host designation.

A report was read yesterday, first day of the two-day meeting, informing the committee that Boys State will have room for 850 boys this year. Only 750 attended last year. The exercise in government is sponsored annually by the Legion.

Rights Group Trying to Halt Legal Block

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Rights Commission seeks today to break a legal roadblock which has stalled hearings on Negro voting rights in the South.

In arguments before the Supreme Court, the agency asks reversal of a 2-1 ruling by a three-judge federal court in Louisiana. That court decided 17 Louisiana voter registrars need not appear before the commission unless advised in advance of charges against them and given the right to confront adverse witnesses and cross examine them.

At stake is the entire system of procedures set by the commission after its creation under the civil rights act of 1957.

The commission maintains it cannot carry out its task of determining facts and of reporting to Congress and the President unless it can protect its sources of information from retaliation.

It argues it is purely an investigative group, without trial powers, and its hearings are properly conducted under the same rules applying to congressional hearings.

In the latter, the rights of prior notice, confrontation and cross examination are not extended to witnesses.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Pratt Remmel of Little Rock; three sons, H. C. Couch Jr. of Little Rock, Kyrle Couch of Shreveport, La., Bill T. Couch of Hot Springs; 17 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

Police Disposes of Dynamite

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State police yesterday disposed of a plastic bag containing 53½ sticks of dynamite which was found beside a country road about five miles southwest of here.

State Police investigator C. W. Tracy, who scattered the explosives in a creek to prevent any explosion, said they probably had been tossed from a passing car some time ago. He said an inch of pure nitroglycerine had collected on the bottom of the plastic bag.

Tracy said there was no indication whether the dynamite was connected with Little Rock's Labor Day bombings.

Attorneys for the registrars argue, however, that the commission is not an executive agency of Congress but an executive agency of quasi-judicial and nature and bounds by all the rules applying to such regulatory bodies.

Now President

Wants New

Flood Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—President

Eisenhower, in a reversal of his policy of the last two years, today asked Congress to vote funds to start a number of new water projects.

Both last year and two years ago the President strongly recommended against appropriation of funds to start construction of new projects. In both years congress ignored him and provided funds for many new projects.

In furtherance of his policy, the President last year twice vetoed the water projects bill, basing his objections on the new start-which he contended would commit the federal government to increasingly large expenditures in this field.

However, after the second veto

Congress enacted the bill over Eisenhower's objections. It was the first time in seven years that an

Eisenhower veto had been overridden.

In calling today for a record

$1,246,400,000 for water projects

Congress for $20,700,000 in construction recommended funds to start about 120 million dollars more than the fiscal year, starting July 1 construction or planning of 49 new

Army Engineer and reclamation

Bureau projects.

Most of the new projects for which the President recommended funds are relatively small. None is in Arkansas.

Space Program to Be Stepped Up This Year

By VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—The civilian space agency plans to launch four deep space probes and eight scientific satellites during the next fiscal year.

The plans were set forth today in President Eisenhower's budget message to Congress. It said the spending program of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will be nearly doubled next year to a new level of 600 million dollars.

To finance this and long-range projects of future years, Eisenhower asked new appropriations of 802 million. He proposed also a supplemental congressional reduction in the space program last year.

The launching of four probes toward the moon or the planets, along with the eight satellite ventures, is not a great advance in numbers from the current program. It is a rate NASA hopes to continue for the years ahead.

But the new satellites and probes will be more complex and will be designed to gather more advanced information.

"The areas receiving primary emphasis in 1961 are the manned-space flight program—Project Mercury—and the development of very high thrust boosters... under the Saturn and related projects," Eisenhower said.

"In Project Mercury, if the preliminary tests and experiments continued to be successful, actual manned space flights may be attempted in 1961."

Possible Cut

This would produce an extra 500 million a year to speed construction of superhighways—a program handled through a trust fund outside the budget.

Congress last year boosted the tax from 3 cents to 4 cents for a 21-month period beginning last October and is expected to resist the new request.

Would Swap Husband for Brother-in-Law

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am married and have three children. I lived with my husband seven years before he married me. Now our baby is going to school and we are still miserable from the talk about me, him and his brother. I am in love with his brother and I don't want to hurt anybody and I don't want to bring disgrace on my people and my children. Tell me what I should do.—Miserable

Dear Miserable: Your husband is the father of your children. Your job is rearing them. Sweep that brother-in-law out of heart and home. If he were half a man he'd save you the chere.

Dear Dorothy DIX:

I have just divorced my husband who was unfaithful. Now I have a gentleman friend who claims to love me and my three children. He has many fine qualities but is fat and sloppy in appearance. Does one overlook characteristics such as those? Could we be happy?—Amy

Dear Amy: A sloppy appearance indicates untidy thinking. Profit by past mistakes. Refuse to settle for less than the best in a husband this year. I notice the word "love" was omitted in your letter. It's important.

Dear Dorothy DIX:

My sister passed away suddenly. We always lived together and had the same interests. Christmas cards went unanswered. I was too grief-stricken to reply. Now I would like to answer our friends' cards. Should I write a note of explanation?—M.R.

Dear M.R.: Reply in long-hand on plain white stationery to all those who sent Christmas cards. Simply say that their words of greeting brought you special solace and had you not been so grief-stricken by your sister's death, would have told them so long before this. They will understand.

Bond Proposal Rejected by The Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus rejected proposed special legislation today to appropriate three million dollars to be used by the First Arkansas Development Finance Corp. to buy bonds of industries entering the state.

The special legislative session, opening at 11 a. m. tomorrow, was called primarily to provide legislation under which local communities can build property for new industries through revenue bonds which could be retired through rent income.

State Sen. Jack Clark of Texarkana said he would introduce legislation which would appropriate the three million dollars to be used by the First Arkansas corporation for industry financing.

Faubus pointed out that Clark's proposal was not included in his call for the special session but that of the special session would permit cities and counties to issue non-taxable revenue bonds to finance industry. A second proposal would permit the state to buy up two million dollars worth of these bonds. The third would allow cities and counties to band together to finance industry.

Yesterday's Efficiency Committee meeting, which was held in the hotel suite of House Speaker E.C. Fleeman of Mississippi County, was concerned mostly with hiring special session personnel.

The committee decided that House members would get $20 per day expense money for the session. Senate expense money has been set at a flat $100.

Faubus will address the Legislature after it convenes at 11 a. m. tomorrow.

would not prevent its introduction. Asked what would happen if the legislation passed both houses Faubus replied:

"I will deal with it when it reaches my desk but I don't think it ever reach here."

The governor added that he was given the chance to include the Clark proposal in his call but turned it down.

Polinski Rep. Glenn E. Waller, chairman of the House Efficiency Committee, said the special session should be over no later than Saturday. It could end in three days. The efficiency committee met over the weekend.

Faubus said he would work the rest of the day on his message to the special session. There was virtually no legislative activity at the Capitol today.

In discussing Clark's proposal Faubus said the three million dollar would have to come from reserve monies which might be possibly it wouldn't be there if tied up in bonds "and there is the possibility it wouldn't be there if the state needed it for emergency revenues."

He said he had talked to representatives of bond houses and they told him the revenue bond proposal is the "best." He added that the program is no guarantee that a community can bring in an industry and finance it since the availability of bond financing will depend entirely on the industry's credit rating.

The efficiency committee etc., picking up previous led at fourth great.

Bobcats Even Series With Crossett Team

By TEDDY JONES JR.

Hope High's Junior and Senior boys teams swept a doubleheader over the Crossett Eagles Saturday night at Jones Field House.

Coach Don Sevier's Bobcats evened the two game series with Crossett by a 54-30 score. Friday night, the Eagles took the Cats to the tune of 60 to 50.

The Junior Bobcats 50-27 victory completed a two game sweep of the Crossett series. The Juniors won Friday's game 31-29.

The win left the Bobcats with a 1-1 conference record to date, while the Junior record in conference play stands at 2-0.

Coach Sevier's second unit, up intact from last year, turned in their best performance to date and carried the Cats to victory over the Eagles.

With Crossett leading the starting five 15-10 at the end of the first quarter Coach Sevier sent his fast, speedy junior aggression into action and they trailed by only three, 23-20 at halftime.

The Hope second half proved the difference.

In the final frame the Bobcats outscored Crossett 15 to 7 in the third and 10 to 9 in the final period.

Gene Robinson was game high scorer with 16 points. Smiley, Arnette, Walters and Calhoun all scored 8 each for the Cats.

Mizzell with 14 points and Jackson with 13 were high for Crossett.

In the Junior game the Bobkittens found the going easier than they had the first night. Earl Ray Murphy, David Porterfield and Tony Purdie were big guns for the Hope attack. Murphy played his best game of the year to lead all scorers with 16 points.

Porterfield played an outstanding rebounding game and racked up 10 points. He was mostly on outside shots. Mac McLarty scored 8 and Dan Jones 7 to complete Hope's scoring.

Meredith scored 14 to lead the baby Eagles. The young Cats were never in danger and led 20-14 at halftime. Final score, Hope 60, Crossett 27.

Hope continues 4 AA Conference play this week entertaining the Arkadelphia Badgers in Jones Field House Friday night where both the Junior and Senior boys are slated to see action.

Saturday night the Junior and Senior boys go to Camden for a pair of conference games with the Panthers.

Attributes Golf Title to Plain Old Luck

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Long-hitting Mickey Wright of San Diego, Calif., attributes her third straight Sea Island Ladies Open golf championship to just luck.

"I felt like a doe before Katie Cornelius after that great round she shot. I'm just a lucky caddy," Miss Wright said Sunday.

"Lucky, my caddy said. Mrs. Cornelius of Lakeland, Fla., applied all the pressure I could and you never ever looked like you were going to fold. You're the champion and you deserve it."

The exchange took place after the blonde Miss Wright fired a two-under-par 70, best round of the 54-hole tournament, to beat Mrs. Cornelius by two strokes.

Miss Wright won first prize of $997.50 in the $8,000 event, with rounds of 74-76-70-219 over the 6,520 yard course. Mrs. Cornelius had rounds of 74-76-71-221 and took second money of $769.50.

The San Diego slammer, twice U.S. Open Champion, began the final day's play with a one shot lead over Mrs. Cornelius and Fay Croker of Montevideo, Uruguay.

Miss Croker was unable to maintain the blistering pace of the other two professionals and came in with a 75 for 225 and third place in the field of 43 professionals and 64 amateurs.

BETTER LUCK NEXT TIME
CASPER, Wyo. (AP)—Thieves who broke into a liquor store took their loot the hard way.

They tipped over a heavy safe, blasted it open and took $2,000 in cash and checks.

If they'd just pressed a key to open the cash register they could have escaped with another $2,500 which the bartender forgot to put in the safe.

Emmet Takes on Texarkana Team Tonight

By JOE LEWIS

It will be a teacher vs. pupil affair tonight at Emmet when the Senior girls tangle with the Arkansas High girls of Texarkana at 7 p.m.

Emmet's Coach Curtis Pharr played for Coach Horace Broom when the latter coached at Emerson. The contest should prove interesting.

The second contest will be between the Emmet and Hope Independent teams.

Unitas Leads West to Win in Pro Bowl

By JOE LEWIS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The accurate arm of Johnny Unitas (the dogged defensive play of Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb and the talented line of Paul Hornung proved a winning combination in the 10th annual Pro Bowl.

The West walloped the East 38-21 Sunday for its sixth triumph in the National Football League's All-Star series.

A crowd of 56,876 in the Coliseum saw Baltimore's Unitas named the game's most valuable player toss three touchdown passes all in the first half for a new Pro Bowl record.

Green Bay's Hornung scored one touchdown kicked a field goal and five conversions for a total of 14 points another record.

The West's defensive line was led by Baltimore's Lipscomb named the game's top lineman. They held the East running game to a scant 59 yards.

A title of San Francisco spelled Unitas and tossed seven strikes in a row during a second-quarter touchdown drive. He completed 13 of 18 passes for 72 per cent.

Los Angeles' Jan Arnett led the West's runners with 61 yards in 11 carries. He picked up 44 more on punts 38 on punt returns and 68 on kickoff returns for a total of 211 yards.

The West's defensive line put a terrific rush on Pittsburgh's Bobby Layne. He was saddled all day with the quarterbacking because Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia had the flu.

Layne's 43-yard pass to Pittsburgh's Jimmy Orr sparked the East's final drive in the last period. The East marched to the 5-yard line but needed eight plays and a penalty to score. Several times the East tried but failed, to power over Lipscomb at tackle. Finally Layne passed a two-yarder to Cleveland's Jimmy Brown for the score.

Unitas' 39, was stripped of his title last summer by the National Football League. He still is recognized as champ in New York and Massachusetts. The NBA took over because of his inactivity. His last title match was March 25, 1958 at Chicago when he beat Carmen Basilio in 15 rounds to win back the crown. Gene Fullmer is the NBA champ.

Sugar Ray had one luncheon fight for the match. He stopped Bobby Young in two rounds Jan. 14 at Boston.

Pender is on a seven-fight winning streak since he resumed boxing after a layoff of a year and a half. His record for 42 fights is 35-5-2 as compared to Robinson's 151 fights with a record of 142-2-2 with one no decision bout. There will be network (NBC) radio and television.

Willie Pastrano of New Orleans and Miami faces Jerry Luedge of New Haven, Conn. on the Wednesday night series, seen on network (ABC) TV from Miami Beach, Fla.

After losing to Alonzo Johnson in Louisville, July 24, Pastrano has beaten two opponents. Luedge also has won two since he dropped a decision to Mike Holt in South Africa, Feb. 28.

Pettit Makes 10,000th Pro Cage Point

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Bob Pettit, the bachelor business man, had just reached the select 10,000-point circle of pro basketball and was talking with boss Ben Kerner in the St. Louis Hawks dressing room.

"The topic of discussion: tax deductions."

"This wasn't surprising because the former Louisiana State All-American personifies the ballplayer-businessman of modern sports. Bob is an easy going, quiet, well-mannered young man. He never lets his ego or his temper get out of hand. He makes about $40,000 a year, 25,000 of it from the Hawks."

"I just play each game as it comes one at a time and never set any goals for myself or shoot for records," Bob said.

Pettit reached the 10,000 point plateau at the age of 27. It took him roughly 5½ seasons.

The 6-foot-9, 240-pounder rewrote the National Basketball Assn. record book last season with 2103 points and a 29.2 average. This season his average is 26.5 second best of his career and his rebounding and passing are the best of his career.

Only nine other players in NBA history have reached the 10,000 mark and none were close to his career average of 23.1. He scored 34 in the Hawks 135-119 victory over Minneapolis Sunray.

In other games Sunday the Boston Celtics leaders of the Eastern Division defeated the Philadelphia Warriors 129-123. The Syracuse Nationals turned back the New York Knickerbockers 129-117 and the Detroit Pistons outscored the Cincinnati Royals 115-110.

The world champion Colts lengthened their lead to 4½ games over the Warriors.

In last Saturday's action the Knicks downed the Royals 132-106 and the Pistons defeated the Lakers 105-98.

Sugar Ray to Fight Pender Friday Night

Porkers Defeat Rice for 4-Way Tie for Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas joined Texas, Southern Methodist and Texas A&M Saturday night in the crowded first position in the Southwest Conference basketball race. The Hogs made the jump from second place with 74-69 victory over Rice at Fayetteville.

Only two SWC games are scheduled this week. Texas and the Aggies get a chance to break up the four-day deadlock before all is silent for final examinations.

Texas meets Baylor at Waco Monday night and A&M faces Rice at Houston Tuesday night. The other league teams have wound up their pre-exam action.

Arkansas' Clyde Rhoden scored 24 points Saturday night and led the Hogs to their eighth victory in 12 starts. He also led the team in rebounding with 14 and directed a sharp floor attack that drew 86 shots at the basket.

David Craig, Rice's only letterman, scored 20 points for the Owls, who trailed through most of the game and lagged badly in the second half.

The Arkansas-Rice game was the one scheduled Saturday. Sophomore Jerry Carlson showed up well for the Hogs, as he has done in all four conference games. He scored 15 points, 14 of them on long jump shots. Lloyd Jones, a dependable reserve, scored 11 for the Hogs. Mike Maroney scored 12 for Rice.

It was the fourth conference loss for the cellar-dwelling Owls.

The Hogs hit 30.2 per cent from the floor and Rice hit 30.6 per cent. The difference was that Arkansas shot 86 to 62 for the Rice 63.

Arkansas sees no more action until Jan. 28, when the Hogs meet Tulsa at Tulsa.

The Aggies are heavily favored over Rice Tuesday night but the Longhorns are not such a cinch over Baylor. The Bears took both Arkansas and SMU into over time last week, losing both. They also lost to the Aggies and have a 1-3 conference record.

Saturn Space Vehicle to Be Started

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala., has been asked to start negotiations with industry within a month for new type upper stages for the Saturn space vehicle.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said today it and the Defense Department had asked ABMA to start the dealings.

The new upper stages will use cryogenic propellants — propellants which have to be kept extremely cold.

Original plans were for the upper stages of the Saturn to be Titan and Centaur rockets.

The entire upper stage is a cryogenic rocket, using liquid oxygen and liquid hydrogen, and will be retained in the Saturn program but the Titan will be dropped.

The Saturn project contemplates that the Saturn will be capable of landing a 1500-pound payload on the moon, placing an 800-pound satellite in orbit around the moon, placing a 90-pound satellite in orbit around Venus, and landing a 400-pound payload on Venus.

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP) — Ed Fulford, a Negro, was charged Saturday with the murder of his neighbor, 50-year-old Nemo Davis.

Police said Fulford's dog killed one of Davis' chickens. They said Davis killed the dog, then Fulford shot Davis five times, killing him instantly.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

© 1959 by Clarence Budington Kelland © 1959 by The Curtis Publishing Company Distributed by HRA, Inc.

THE STORY: Stubby Newell on whose farm the Cardiff giant was found, is making a great deal of money exhibiting the marvel at $1 a person. But also of great importance in Syracuse is the arrival of Madam Cissie Janeway, who retained Orrin as her lawyer.

CHAPTER VII

It was due, of course, to newspaper enterprise that the Cardiff Giant was so widely advertised. The murder was a local thing and not calculated by our editors to be of interest beyond our limits, but the giant was a cat of another color. Accounts of it were telegraphed to New York and Boston. The telegraph company charged all of $84.50 for an hour's use of their facilities. But when that hour was up, even if the Czar of Russia were drowned in the Erie Canal, no word of it could be sent out until the next day.

But to people of our class the absorbing topic was the dinner and reception to be given by Banker Wyatts to introduce Madam Janeway to Syracuse society. Some 20 of our most prominent citizens were bidden to dine in the spacious Wyatts' dining room. After which the reception was to be held.

Lossie and I, naturally, were not invited to the dinner, but we were permitted to attend the reception.

She wore a gown I never had seen before, and which I accused her of buying for the event. It littered lightly above the waist, but from the hips downward it flared and billowed over hoop-skirts with panniers and flounces. And it was an off kind of blue that somehow made you very conscious of her blue eyes. She was elegant—very elegant—and dignified and grown-up and reserved. And most startlingly lovely.

"Gosh all fishhooks!" I exclaimed loudly.

She stared at me with elevated brows. "If that is a compliment, I'm obliged to you, sir. However, it might have been phrased a bit more elegantly."

"I'm not elegant," I said miserably. "I haven't been to Europe to learn how."

"If," she said lightly, "there should be dancing, try not to step on my feet."

After all, there is such a thing as self-respect.

"Good night, Miss Lossie," I said lightly. "In the future I hope you find a more suitable escort."

"Oh," she said, "I shall do that, of course. But tonight you're all I've got. Come back here, Orrin. Applaud!"

Then, with a lightning change, she became the Lady of half a dozen years ago—tomboy with grimy hands and holes in the knees of her stockings. She lifted her stately skirt so that she could kick, and she did kick me on the shin.

Somehow, this made everything different. Here was a Lossie I was familiar with, and with whom I knew how to cope.

"Then," I said stoutly, "keep a polite tongue in your head!"

We were admitted to Banker Wyatts' home and shown directly to where the host and hostess received.

I was conscious that something was happening to Lossie. I felt a slight movement, a sort of drawing together of her slender body, a straightening of her shoulders and a lifting of her chin. This person who walked beside me never had done anything so undignified. She seemed taller, and somehow she had contrived to seem more mature. Her very face had altered. It was not pert with promise of rich beauty to come; it was dignified by beauty that had amply arrived. It was not a cold-standoffish beauty, but vivid and arresting and somehow seductive.

Here was nothing naive, but all the allure of Eve, who had learned wisdom from the serpent. For an instant Mrs. Wyatts did

Search on for Safe Burglars

COY, Ark. (AP) — State and county officers and postal inspectors were searching yesterday for burglars who stole a safe containing about 1,250 in cash and checks from a general store here.

Postal officers got in on the search after it was reported that burglars had stolen 60 cents from the general store's post office cabinet.

not recognize Lossie, and then her pale blue eyes widened and I thought, "Well!" But she recovered herself.

"Madam Janeway," she did say, "this is our little neighbor, Lossie Fox."

I got the idea that the older woman was trying to belittle Lossie, but she had no luck whatever. Madam and the girl looked into each other's eyes for an instant, and then both smiled brightly.

"But, my dear!" exclaimed Madam with generous warmth, "I had no idea I had such a beauty for a neighbor!"

"Madam is kind," Lossie said with perfect poise. "But she can well afford to pay a nice compliment. For who could compete with Madam's loveliness?"

Madam Janeway's smile was condescendingly regal as she looked at Lossie with her fan.

"And your gown, Miss Lossie," she said, "was not evened in Syracuse. It fairly reeks of the Rue de la Paix."

With the restless line behind us, we could not linger. Before we passed on, Madam Janeway greeted me with a nicely jocular familiarity. "And my legal adviser!" she said. "How kind of you to come to this reception!"

I led Lossie away, and when we were at a safe distance I said in an angry whisper, "What got into you, Lossie? An hour ago you were going to put poison in her soup. And now better wouldn't melt in your mouth?"

She looked up at me and her lip curled slightly. "Madame Janeway, she said, 'is exquisite. One had to see her to lose one's heart! Such glamour!'"

"Come off it, Lossie," I said testily. "What are you up to?"

"Oh, Orrin," she said girlishly, although her eyes were not girlish, but sardonic. "I want to study Madam, to pattern myself after her. To learn decorum."

She was all but cooing in a sickening manner.

Brucker Cuts Short Tour of Far East

By K. C. HWANG

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — U. S. Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker is cutting short his Far Eastern tour following criticism of his statement that the United States will defend Nationalist China's offshore islands from Chinese Communist aggression.

In a clarifying statement today, Brucker said his remarks at a news conference in Taipei "did not infer or state any change of U. S. policy."

He implied that the United States already had defended the offshore islands by escorting convoys of supplies and troops to them during the Communist artillery bombardment of the Quemoy group in the fall of 1958.

The secretary is winding up a three-week tour of U. S. bases in the Far East. He said he would arrive back in Washington Jan. 19, instead of Jan. 22 as originally scheduled, to appear before hearings of the Senate Armed Services Committee.

He refused to comment on speculation that he had been summoned home to explain his remarks in Taipei.

The Army said Brucker would leave Seoul for the United States Saturday, make brief refueling stops in Japan and the Aleutians, and would omit a scheduled visit to Japan.

The Army secretary told the news conference in Taipei Sunday that the United States would defend the Nationalist-held islands just off the mainland against Communist aggression. He added that

Expansion of Missile Groups Urged by Ike

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower wants to expand the number of intercontinental ballistic missile squadrons and at the same time continue buying manned strategic bombers.

Despite a 50-million-dollar increase in defense spending, the budget calls for small reductions from the current year in spending for airplanes, missiles and ships. But increases in new appropriations are asked to provide more modern missiles and ships as they can be built.

No cuts were asked in active manpower totals.

The $40,995,000,000 military budget delivered to Congress today was prepared before Premier Nikita Khrushchev's announcement last week that the Soviet Union will quit making bombers and rely instead almost exclusively on massive rocket power for attack on the United States.

Eisenhower emphasized his own view that the shift to new weapons must be cautious.

"Strategy and tactics of the U. S. military forces are now undergoing one of the greatest transitions in history," the President wrote. "The change of emphasis from conventional-type to missile-type warfare must be made with care, mindful that the one type of warfare cannot be safely neglected in favor of the other."

An analysis of the military budget shows funds are asked to start expanding the number of Atlas and Titan missile squadrons from the presently planned 26 to a total of 27. Of these, 13 would be Atlas squadrons, 14 the still-in-development Titan. A rough estimate is a squadrons of missiles costs about 150 million dollars.

For the new fiscal year starting next July 1, the over-all missile program — money either actually spent or authorized for spending — is estimated at $6,981,000,000.

The budget would provide for continuing to buy more B52 heavy jet bombers, to bring the total of those manned bomber units to an eventual 14 wings. Previously, the plan had been to have 11 wings.
